P.C.

. Heard the learned counsel for the parties.

2. This appeal is preferred by the wife aggrieved by the judgment and order dated 30.9.2002 passed in Petition No. C-34 of 2000 by the VIIth Family Court at Bandra, Mumbai.

3. The appellant preferred a petition under section 18 (2) (a) and (d) of the Hindu Adoption & Maintenance Act, 1956 and sought maintenance in the sum of Rs. 8000/- per month with separate residence and costs which has been quantified as Rs.22,000/- . The Family Court awarded the sum of Rs. 1000/- per month to the petitioner towards maintenance from the date of the order and rejected the claim of the appellant so far as providing for separate accommodation and costs as she was represented by an advocate from the panel of Legal Aid.

4. In the midst of hearing and after considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the parties, it was decided that the parties would work out a settlement and accordingly the parties have submitted consent terms.

5. The consent terms are read over and explained to the parties in vernacular. They state that they have understood the terms and conditions for which they have agreed and affixed their signatures. The consent terms are taken on record and marked "X" for identification. We, therefore, dispose of the appeal in accordance with the consent terms marked "X" for identification. The undertakings given in the consent terms are accepted. The appeal stands disposed of accordingly. No order as to costs.

6. The civil application filed along with the appeal does not survive and disposed of as infructuous.
